

by Raffaele Petrillo - How to earn a living as a translator. Raffaele Petrillo began as a teacher, translator and interpreter in the golden days of the economic boom in Milan in an attempt to earn enough to make a good living. Since then he has accumulated dozens of translations from various languages into Italian as well as English, hundreds of days of interpreting, and thousands and thousands of hours teaching... and he is still going strong.