by Cristiana Mennella

Since she found it impossible to keep a diary of her long and intense stay in Texas at the invitation of the Lannan Foundation, Cristiana Mennella presents her memories to the reader as a bunch of snapshots. Journey, landscape, silence, lost feeling, rituals, meetings and social life are all held together by one single thing: the daily act of translating.